

Karyotype Practice

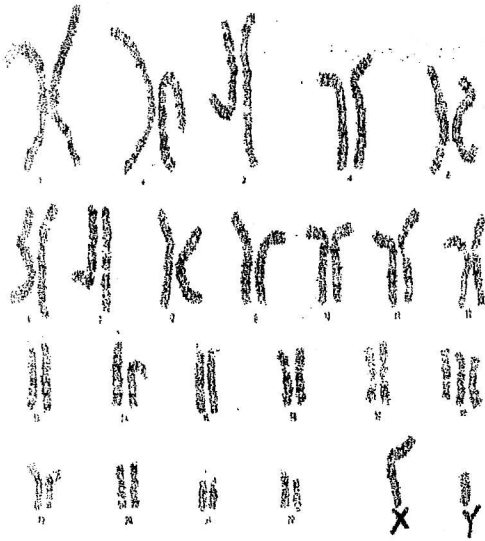

1. In general, what information can we learn from looking at a karyotype?

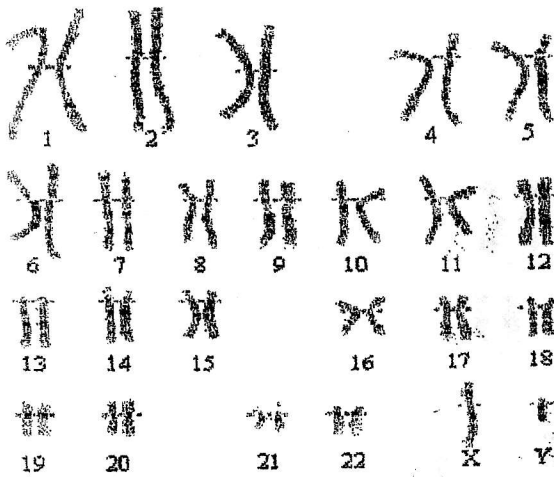

1. Is this person male or female?
2. How do you know?
3. Do they have the normal number of chromosomes?
4. If not, what is missing or extra?

1. Is this person male or female?
2. How do you know?
3. Do they have the normal number of chromosomes?
4. If not, what is missing or extra?

1. Is this person male or female?
2. How do you know?
3. Do they have the normal number of chromosomes?
4. If not, what is missing or extra?

1. Is this person male or female?
2. How do you know?
3. Do they have the normal number of chromosomes?
4. If not, what is missing or extra?